Sonexis Technology, Inc. Selected as an Alliance Member in ShoreTel Innovation Network

For Immediate Release: June 16, 2010

Monroeville, Pa. – Sonexis Technology, Inc., a leading provider of on-premise audio and Web conferencing platforms for the enterprise, today announced it has been selected by ShoreTel, Inc., a provider of brilliantly simple Unified Communication (UC) solutions, as an Alliance member in the ShoreTel Innovation Network. Sonexis is proud to continue its relationship with ShoreTel as an Alliance member in the ShoreTel Innovation Network.

Sonexis ConferenceManager provides a high quality, feature-rich collaboration solution for enterprise customers looking to implement a secure, cost-effective alternative to ‘pay per minute’ audio and Web conferencing. Sonexis customers derive significant cost savings over traditional conferencing service providers, and benefit from enhanced security, functionality, and reporting features that are inherent in the platform.

“Sonexis is committed to providing a comprehensive and complementary collaboration solution to ShoreTel customers and partners,” said Dan Watkins, executive vice president of Sonexis. “ConferenceManager offers a robust and secure collaboration solution that can be seamlessly deployed to ShoreTel customers that require an expanded collaboration solution, while preserving prior investments. As an Alliance member in the Innovation Network, Sonexis can provide ShoreTel customers another option for enhanced audio and Web collaboration.”

“We’re pleased to have Sonexis and their ConferenceManager solution within the Innovation Network, complimenting ShoreTel’s rich Unified Communications offerings,” said Kevin Gavin, chief marketing officer at ShoreTel. “Sonexis has been a valuable technology partner since 2008 and we look forward to building upon existing success as part of our ongoing commitment to standards-based technologies and open-architected systems that give customers flexibility to implement solutions ideally situated for specific business needs.”
